

Week 5

Hello everyone. Thank you all for another great week of work posted on seesaw. Lovely to see all your videos and photos. The weather forecast says there will be snow during the week so I hope ye all have great fun throwing snowballs and making snow people.

As mentioned before, there is no obligation to upload work every day. You can choose to upload a sample of work or all work completed at a time which is convenient to you. Please contact me through Seesaw or my email chazkinane@gmail.com if I can offer any support to you or your child.
